

Debate Format and Structure

1. Committee Context

Each committee will address one economic crisis or policy issue.

- The issue must be resolved through an economic policy solution.
- Two weeks before the conference, delegates will receive a research report prepared by the chairs.
- The report will:
 - Explain the crisis
 - Identify the key clashes
 - Present the two competing policy approaches

2. Morning Session – Policy Development

Duration: 1 hour 30 minutes

During the morning session:

- Delegates work with their side to design a policy response to the crisis.
- Each side will produce an MUN-style resolution outlining their policy solution.
- Delegates may also use this time to:
 - Prepare arguments
 - Assign speaking roles
 - Prepare responses to the opposing policy

This session serves as the preparation period for the debate.

3. Committee Composition

Each committee consists of 20 delegates.

Delegates are divided into:

- Side 1: 10 delegates
- Side 2: 10 delegates

Each side is further split into two speaking groups.

Group	Composition
Group A	5 delegates from Side 1 + 5 delegates from Side 2
Group B	5 delegates from Side 1 + 5 delegates from Side 2

4. Debate Spars

There will be two debate spars during the evening session.

- Both spars debate the same economic issue.
- No additional preparation time is given between spars.
